EVERY AUTO TO SHOW TAG NOW

Prosecutions of Unlicensed
Chauffeurs and Drivers
Will Begin Tomorrow.

After tomorrow, Friday, June 11, prosecutions will begin of all who have failed to procure automobile or chauffeur's licenses from the secretary of state. The law went into effect sixty days after its passage, but contained a provision giving thirty days to comply with the provisions. These thirty days expire tomorrow.

In the meantime, the chief of police has been making preparations and has issued instructions to his men to prosecute every owner of a motor vehicle without a number and every chauffeur who cannot produce his license. The law makes the operating of such a motor vehicle a misdemeanor.

There were over 500 automobiles registered in the office of the city recorder under the city ordinance, but the secretary has only received 423 registrations from Salt Lake City. Ogden, too, has only taken out forty-six licenses for automobiles, which is pretty fair for an automobile town, but is not within half the number in operation there. Information received is to the effect that there are 110 buzz buggies in the Junction City which have not paid a state tax.

Up to noon Wednesday there had been issued numbers to 500 automobile owners in the state, and licenses to eighty chauffeurs. There are believed to be over a thousand in the state altogether.

The records show that the gasoline wagon is by no means a novelty in the smaller towns. Provo took out three licenses, Murray three, Brigham City four and the larger city of Logan only one. Vernal, Lehi, Tremonton, Gunnison, Centerville, Ophir and Mount Pleasant each showed up with one, as many as Logan.

A Delicious, Nourishing Meal for 5 Cents

YOU don't believe it, do you? Here it is: Take two SHREDDED WHEAT BISCUITS; heat them in the oven to restore crispness, pour hot milk over them; add a little cream and salt to suit the taste.

Or, if you don't like milk, try it this way: Heat two Biscuits in oven to restore crispness; then dip them quickly in salt water, place a piece of butter on the Biscuit, allowing it to melt into the shreds.

Or, heat the Biscuits in oven, dip them in milk, drain, and fry in butter, after which they may be served with a little cream, if desired.

A little fruit makes the meal even more wholesome and adds little to the cost. Try one of these tomorrow.

Shredded Wheat is made of the choicest selected white wheat, cleaned, steam-cooked and baked. Try it for breakfast to-morrow with milk or cream. The Biscuit is also delicious for any meal in combination with fresh or preserved fruits.

THIS OUGHT TO HOLD MATHEWS FOR A TIME

Divorced Husband Gets Jail Sentence and Wife Gets the Household Furniture.

The Mathews family, whose matrimonial infelicities have occupied the attention of the district court and received considerable airing in other quarters, were before Judge J. J. Whitaker in the city court yesterday. The case was rather abruptly terminated by Albert G. Mathews being sent to jail for contempt of court, but Mrs. Janet Mathews got what she sued for, replevin of the household goods and judgment for $50 damages. Mrs. Mathews received a divorce from Judge Morse on Jan. 9 last on the showing that Mathews had thrown lamps and household utensils at her, threatened to kill her, attempted to poison her, threw her out of the house on her head and had kicked her all the way from their garden into the house again. He responded at the trial by charging her with bigamy in having married him when the wife of one Louis Shaenger. Mrs. Mathews was awarded the household goods. At one stage of the case a reconciliation was effected, but it did not last. Mathews got hold of the household goods and kept them, so the former wife sued in the city court to replevin them. During the trial Mathews became obstreperous and was ordered to keep quiet by the judge, or he would be fined for contempt. He continued his abuse and directed some of it against the judge, who promptly fined him $2. On his statement that he had no money, and wouldn't pay anyway, he was taken to the county jail for two days.

UTAH BANK WINS SUIT AGAINST JOSEPH NELSON

Joseph Nelson will be compelled to pay the note for $13,250, which he gave as his share in making good the shortage after the robbery of the Utah National bank of $106,250. Judge George G. Armstrong of the district court yesterday gave judgment against Nelson and in favor of the bank on the note. The suit was tried on Monday.

It was shown by the testimony at the trial that W. S. McCormick, Thomas R. Cutler and Nelson held a conference after the robbery and decided to make good the amount stolen. By this agreement McCormick was to give his personal check for $50,000, Nelson his note for $13,250 and the remainder was to be made up from the bank's surplus. Later Nelson refused to pay the note, holding that there was no proper consideration. This view of the transaction failed to impress the judge, who decided against Nelson for the full amount with interest.
